My dear Cousin Philip.

I have not written to you before sending to send you my photograph, which I have not done till now owing to my having been rather out of health this winter.

It was for us a great pleasure to read in the Courier Journal the article entitled the Keats Mansion. We have a very good photograph of this house built by our uncle George, and also of the Keats Monument in Cave Hill Cemetery Louisville. They were sent to my dear Mother by Mr T Holland Day, an American gentelman who lives in Norwood. Mass.

I dont know if you have read Keats's works edited by H Buxton Forman.
In this works were published the letters of our uncle John to our dear Mother, which had never before been published. The letters had remained till now in the hands of Mr Forman, but now we have decided to make a present of them to the British Museum.

I can assure you it is a great sacrifice for us to part with the letters that belonged to our dear Mother, and moreover were written by our uncle me frequently, and not having received any answer to my last letters I am uneasy, as she is a very dear friend of mine.

I hope I shall have the pleasure of hearing soon from you.

Give our kindest remembrances to all your family.

Yours most affectionately

Rosa Llanos Reato.

I send you my photograph by this post.

P. S. The family picture my niece has not finished still, she has been occupied painting imitation of tapestry, when the picture is finished I will send you a photograph.

Tell me when you write if you continue in the same employment, and also if your brother Henry prospers in his profession.

forever safe from auction.

My niece Elena is not satisfyed with the likeness of the family picture and I think will not finish it. I hope my sister and family will have their photographs taken in a group as soon then I will send it to you.

I should like very much to have a photograph of your sister. Give her my love, and kind remembrances to all the family.
